4	Maybe better to rotate speakers depending on meeting location	11/3/2015 3:51 AM
5	Presentation should end at least 15 minutes before the beginning of the next meetings	11/3/2015 2:50 AM
6	One lunch with speaker per meeting I think is optimal	11/3/2015 1:45 AM

Vancouver, Canada - Council and Committee Meetings

7	Great speaker on a topic that was interesting to the entire audience	11/2/2015 5:22 PM
8	It would have been very much appreciative for the speaker to throw some light on Africa as well in the global economy.	11/2/2015 3:48 PM
9	I was a little bothered that he kept referring to "the CHinese" and "the Russians" etc without seeming to realize that there were people of those various nationalities in the room.	11/2/2015 3:27 PM
10	Didn't realize there was going to be a luncheon speaker, so I happened to be seated with my back to him, which was awkward. If there was advance notice that there would be a speaker, it didn't sink in.	11/2/2015 3:23 PM

4	I think the floor plan on the hotel which we were provided was very helpful in locating the meeting rooms.	11/2/2015 3:53 PM
5	Only criticism is that I wished the hotel had a good gathering place for relaxed conversation by the front door. I did less networking this meeting because I wasn't hanging out by the front door creating possibilities for chance encounters as people came and went.	11/2/2015 3:30 PM
6	Little too expensive	11/2/2015 3:13 PM
