

IAA COUNCIL & COMMITTEE MEETINGS

Budapest, Hungary

April 18-23, 2017

Advice and Assistance Seminar for Eurasia and Middle East Associations

Budapest Marriott Hotel

April 18, 2017

Room: Corso A&B

ABOUT THE SEMINAR

The Eurasia and Middle East Subcommittee of the Advice and Assistance is pleased to organize a seminar to address issues that associations from the Eurasia and Middle East region face. The seminar's objective is assisting the leaders of associations from the region to map their association's key priorities for the next stages of development and to assess how to better utilize IAA resources to meet those needs.

Seminar Schedule

Time	Topic	Speaker	Objective
9:00 – 10:00	Welcome Coffee and Networking
10:00- 11:15	Professionalism education delivery	Chris Daykin	Presentation about professionalism introduced by a brief history of the profession in Hungary.
11:15 – 12:30	Relationship with the Regulator	Chris Daykin and Vladimir Novikov	Participants will be encouraged to be part of discussion groups to analyze best practice and how to actively engage on a relationship with regulators.
12:30 – 14:00	Lunch served in ballroom BUDA
14:00 – 15:00	Setting Standards of Actuarial Practice. An introduction	Gábor Hanák	Presentation offering a general introduction of the standards setting process as followed by the AAE.
15:00 – 16:00	Association visibility "surviving the association"	Ibrahim Muhanna	Session geared to share practices on supporting internal procedures of the association.
16:00 – 16:30	Coffee Break and Networking
16:30 – 17:30	Branding for Actuarial Associations	Peter Doyle	Presentation of the Branding toolkit and how can actuarial associations implement branding practices to achieve their goals.
17:30 – 18:30	IAIS and IAA joint project on inclusive insurance	Jules Gribble	Presentation to introduce the project and expose the draft papers to the audience for feedback.

