

Accreditation

'To examine applications for membership, to monitor continuing compliance, to review membership requirements, and to bring recommendations forward to Council on a timely basis. In circumstances where a member fails to maintain compliance with membership requirements, to recommend appropriate action to Council. To liaise with other IAA committees, as needed, on issues related to membership requirements and admission criteria.'