The International Actuarial Association (IAA), established in 1895, is a non-profit-making, and non-political, Non-Governmental Organisation. It is on the Roster of the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations Organisation (UNO) and on the Special List of the International Labour Office (ILO). It has the International Social Security Association (ISSA) and the International Accounting Standards Committee (IASC) as Institutional Members.

ASSOCIATION ACTUARIELLE INTERNATIONALE
INTERNATIONAL ACTUARIAL ASSOCIATION

Fonds International et Actions International Promotion and Education
de Promotion et de Formation de l’AAI Fund and Actions of the IAA

Second International Professional Meeting of Leaders of the Actuarial Profession and Actuarial Educators in Asia and the Pacific

THE PROFESSION OF ACTUARY AND ITS ROLE IN PROTECTING THE PUBLIC INTEREST

Friday 12 January to Monday 15 January 2001
Mandarin Oriental Hotel, Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

Detailed Agenda (draft)

Friday 12 January 2001
16.30 - 18.00 Registration at the Mandarin Oriental Hotel
18.30 – 20.00 Cocktail reception at the Mandarin Oriental Hotel

Saturday 13 January 2001
09.00 - 09.30 Opening ceremony. Welcome addresses from the Assistant Governor of the Central Bank, Dato’ Dr Awang Adek Hussin and from the President of the International Actuarial Association.
09.30 - 10.30 Working paper: Summary of responses to questionnaires on development of actuarial profession in the region. Followed by a brief introduction from each country. A quick overview of the current status of development of the actuarial profession in that country and in particular any important points to add to the rapporteur’s summary. (Note that there will be an opportunity to discuss actuarial education developments on Monday morning).

10.30 - 11.00  Tea/coffee break

11.00 – 12.30  Continuation of country presentations.

12.30 - 13.30  Lunch

13.30 - 15.00  Working Paper: Professionalism and the role of the actuarial profession in protecting the public interest. Presentations by Peter Clark and Mo Chambers

15.00 - 15.30  Tea/coffee break

15.30 - 17.30  Working Paper: Professionalism and the role of the actuarial profession in protecting the public interest. Discussion

19.00  Dinner with invited guests at the Mandarin Oriental Hotel

Sunday 14 January 2001

09.00 - 09.45  Working Paper: Pension reform and the role for actuaries and the actuarial profession. Presentations by Chris Daykin and Stuart Leckie.

09.45 - 10.30  Working Paper: The role of the actuarial profession in the sound management of the life insurance industry. Presentations by John Bowman and Tom Karp

10.30 – 11.00  Tea/coffee break

11.00 – 11.45  Working Paper: The role of the actuarial profession in the sound management of the general insurance industry. Presentations by David Oakden and Alice Gannon
11.45 - 12.30  Working Paper: The role of the actuarial profession in health care financing and health insurance. Presentations by Howard Bolnick and Bob Collett

12.30 - 13.30  Lunch

13.30 - 16.00  Break-out sessions with a group to discuss each of the following (subject to demand):
- pension reform and the role of actuaries
- issues for life insurance actuaries in the region
- issues for general insurance actuaries in the region
- actuarial issues in health care financing and health insurance

16.00 - 17.30  Plenary feedback session. Reports from groups and discussion of topics for research or further action.

18.30  Cocktail reception at the Mandarin Oriental Hotel at the invitation of the organisers of the Emerging Markets Conference.

19.30  Dinner for participants at the Mandarin Oriental Hotel

Monday 15 January 2001

09.00 - 10.00  Working paper: Developments in actuarial education  Overview paper.
(including update on development of core syllabus in IAA and education strategy developments in UK, USA, Japan and Australia. Presentations by Chris Daykin, Rob Brown, Junzo Tanaka and David Knox.

10.00 - 10.30  Tea/coffee break

10.30 - 12.30  Working paper: Developments in actuarial education. Discussion on actuarial education (including reports on development of actuarial education in different countries).

12.30 - 13.30  Lunch

14.30 – 15.00  Tea/coffee break
15.00 – 16.00  Break-out sessions on the role of the actuarial association and related issues.

16.00 – 17.15  Plenary feedback session. Reports from groups and discussion of topics for further action.

17.15 – 17.30  Final remarks and closing ceremony.