

Presidents Forum: Role and Purpose?

12 October 2013

Singapore

Discussion facilitator: Tonya B. Manning

Agenda

- Context
  - Mission of the Presidents Forum
  - Questions raised in the IAA Governance Review Survey
- Questions for discussion

Presidents Forum: current state

- Mission: Build relationships and understanding among the current Presidents of the world's actuarial associations.
- Group convenes twice yearly at IAA Committee and Council meetings.
- Focus: discuss matters of strategic importance to the worldwide profession.
- Independent of IAA formal structure.
- Restricted attendance: one current President at the inner table, maximum two additional at outer table

IAA Governance Review Survey

- Majority of responses say Presidents Forum adds value ('yes' or 'somewhat').
- Support for Presidents Forum as opportunity for discussion of IAA strategic plan, and sounding board for key decisions before they are taken to Council.
- Majority do not feel that the Presidents Forum should become part of IAA formal structure.

Discussion Today

IAA objective: bring together leaders of the actuarial profession from across the world.

→ How can the Presidents Forum support this objective?

IAA objective: strengthen and develop the engagement of member associations.

→ What role can the Presidents Forum play in enhancing this engagement?